Applying the MAT Standards within a Human Rights Approach

---

In line with their partnership with the MAT Standards Implementation Support Team (MIST) & Scottish Government Drug Policy Division, REACH Advocacy will be delivering awareness workshops on the Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT) Standards and how they can be implemented as part of a wider human rights-based framework to ultimately reduce drug deaths and related harms within Scotland.

Key topics covered in the workshop include;

- socioeconomic factors contributing to Substance Use Disorder as a health condition
- Human Rights legislation
- practical educational frameworks to use when applying a Human Rights Based Approach
- MAT Standards (1- 10) and how they all aim to ensure that the human rights of individuals are upheld, fulfilled and protected.
