

HOLOCAUST
MEMORIAL
DAY 27/1

Light the Darkness

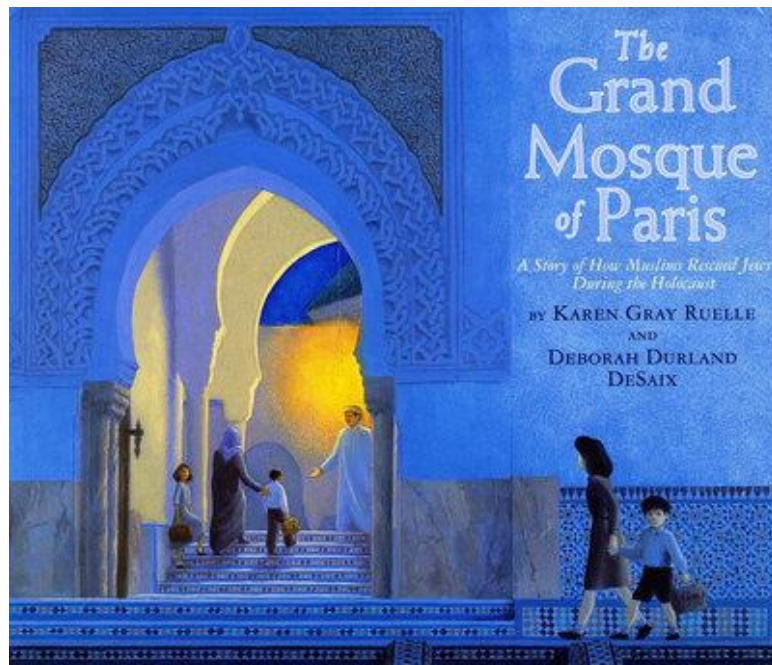

Holocaust Memorial Day is the day for everyone to remember the millions of people, including children and young people, murdered in the Holocaust under Nazi Persecution and in the genocides which followed in Cambodia, Rwanda, Bosnia and Darfur. For information and resources for children and schools click HERE.

Holocaust Memorial Day 2022 encourages everyone to reflect on the depths humanity can sink to but also the ways individuals and communities resisted the darkness to 'be the light' before, during and after genocide.

Help your children to understand the Holocaust and encourage them to question so they too can be the light in the darkness against discrimination, racism and hatred. There are resources listed below to use at home or at school. The books listed are all available from Bradford Libraries. To reserve books or to search Bradford Libraries catalogue for other titles and how to join the library online click HERE.

We welcome children's book suggestions from children; parents/carers and schools - email: christinea.donnelly@bradford.gov.uk Development Officer for Children and Young People

Books for Children and Young People

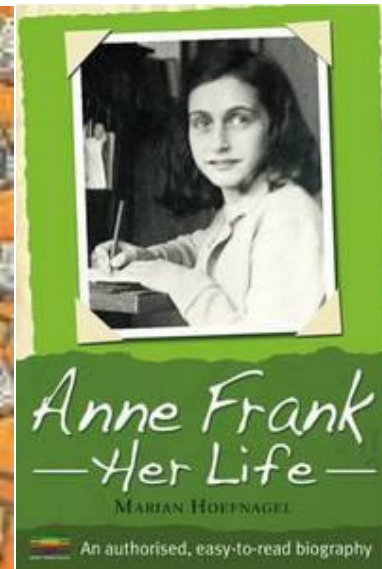

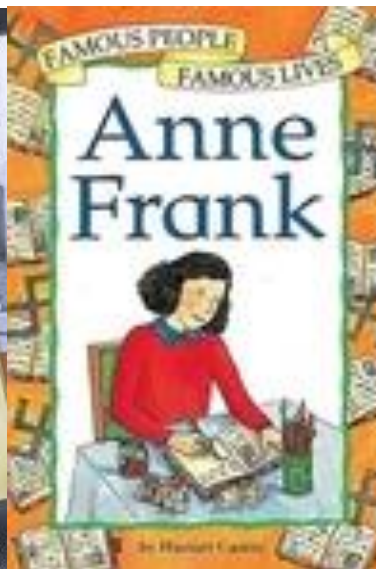

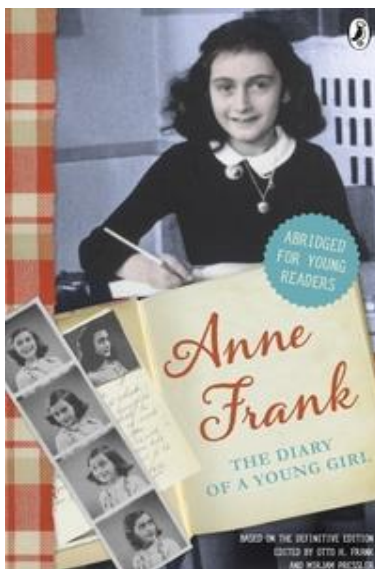

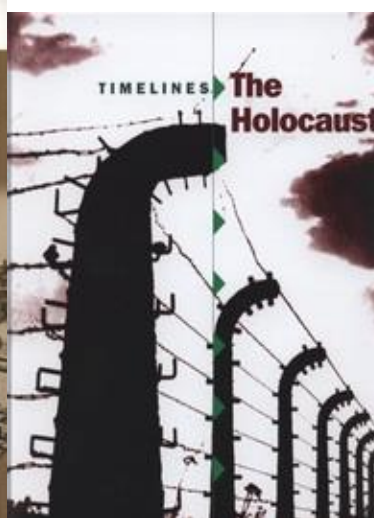

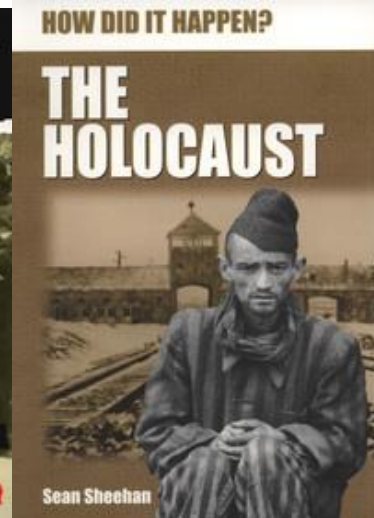

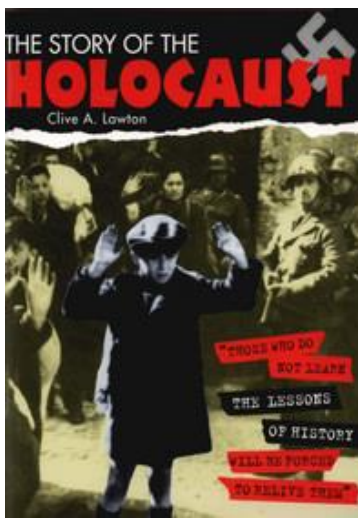

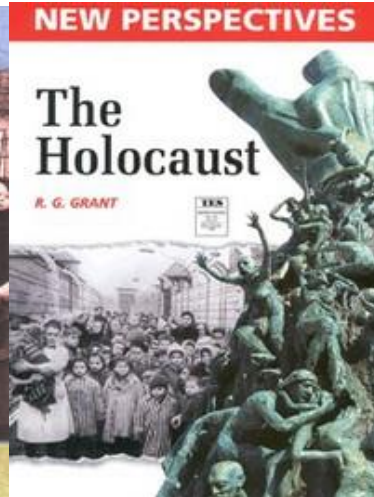

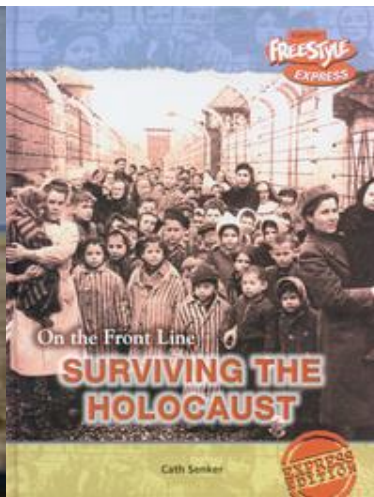

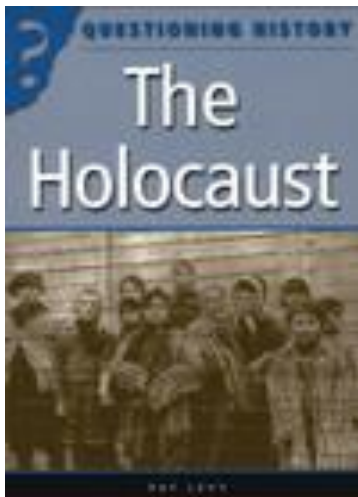

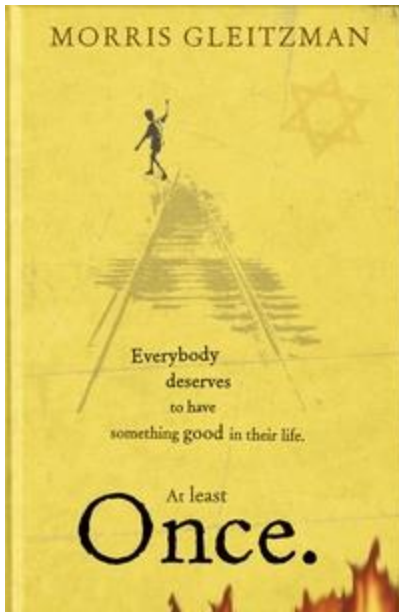

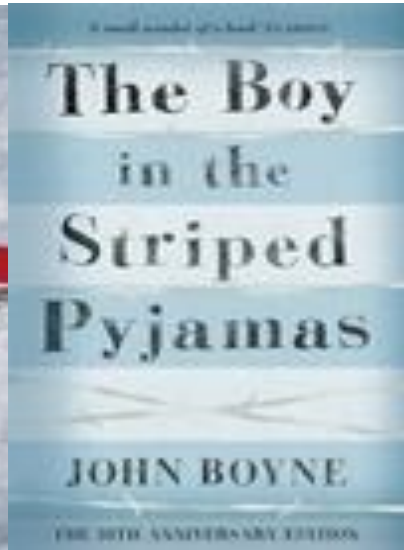

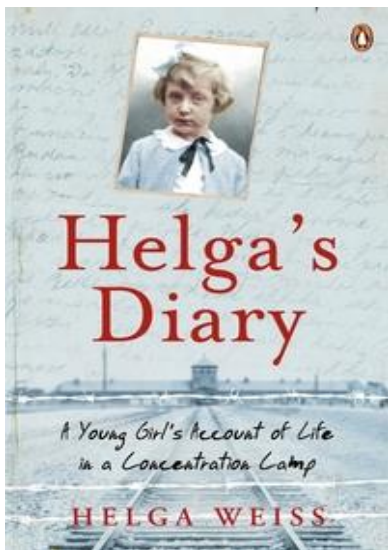

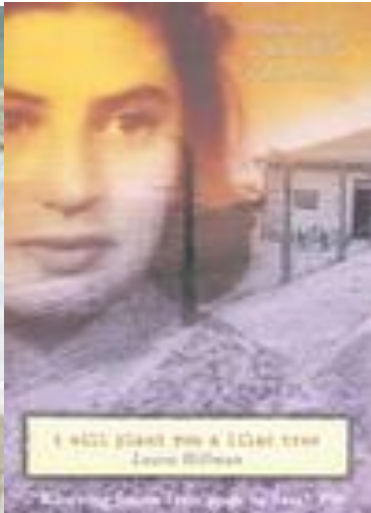

When the Nazis occupied Paris, no Jew was safe from arrest and deportation.

Few Parisians were willing to risk their own lives to help. Yet during that perilous time, many Jews found refuge in an unlikely place--the sprawling complex of the Grand Mosque of Paris. Not just a place of worship but a community centre, this hive of activity was an ideal temporary hiding place for escaped prisoners of war and Jews of all ages, especially children.

Beautifully illustrated and thoroughly researched (both authors speak French and conducted first-person interviews and research at archives and libraries), this hopeful, non-fiction book introduces children to a little-known part of history. Perfect for children studying World War II or those seeking a heart-warming, inspiring read that highlights extraordinary Heroism across faiths.

Includes a bibliography, a recommended list of books and films, and afterword from the authors that gives more details behind the story.

Holocaust Memorial Day

Thanks to generous funding support from the Marks Family Charitable Trust, the Association of Jewish Refugees and The Blue Thread, the National Literacy Trust is once again teaming up with award-winning author Tom Palmer to produce free resources which can be used in the classroom or at home, to help schools commemorate Holocaust Memorial Day (Thursday 27 January 2022).

The resources are designed to be used throughout the week beginning Monday 24 January 2022, and are suitable for use with students aged 10 to 14 (Upper Key Stage 2 and Key Stage 3).

Live event

On Monday 24 January 2022, we will be running a free live event with Tom Palmer and a Holocaust survivor. Find out how to attend and register your class here.
