

Help us to continue to celebrate our brilliant workforce!

As part of the 'Be Brilliant' campaign, we are asking you to submit case studies which celebrate both brilliant work and best practice in the Council.

We don't want to lose the brilliant way we do things and want to harness our collective knowledge and experiences so they can be used to help inform and shape service planning for the new councils.

Each Monday, we will be shining a spotlight on either a colleague or team to highlight their brilliant work.

Please get involved by completing this form and returning it to: BeBrilliant@cumbria.gov.uk.

Project / piece of work:

Service area / team:

Directorate:

Summary (up to 350 words):

Tell us why this is an example of brilliant work and/or best practice. Ideally explaining how it meets the Council's objectives and what impact it has had (e.g., on staff, communities and/or the organisation).

From all the submissions sent, the Chief Executive, John Metcalfe will pick his 'Be Brilliant' case study of the week.
