

TRUST SUBJECT LEADER CONFERENCE

Supporting, developing and retaining STEM teachers

Date: 5 December 2023

Venue: National STEM
Learning Centre, York

Price: £150+VAT

Overview

Explore how your role as a school trust subject lead can support the development and retention of staff including how you plan, deliver and measure impact of professional development. See full details on reverse.

Key themes

- Professional development including coaching
- Curriculum
- Transition and progression
- Digital skills
- Adaptive teaching
- Primary science
- Retention

To book your place visit stem.org.uk/trustconference23

Session

Details

Registration, coffee and networking

A chance to network and speak to exhibitors

Welcome & housekeeping

A warm welcome from STEM Learning before the event begins

Opening Keynote speaker - Grace Coker, Education Endowment Foundation

Effective Professional Development

Workshop session 1 – choice of four sessions

- a) Curriculum options
- b) Instructional Coaching, Evidence and Iterations
- c) Transition
- d) Digital Skills - planning across schools and STEM

Lunch and networking

A chance to re-energise and network with peers

Workshop session 2 - choice of four workshops

- a) Adaptive teaching through the lens of STEM
- b) Effective primary science
- c) How can we help teachers deliver more inclusive teaching?
- d) Using CQF to drive improvement

Closing panel - Chaired by Sir Daniel Moynihan Chief Executive of Harris Federation

Recruitment & retention - Panellists include:

- Dr Ben Dunn Head of Monitoring & Evaluation, STEM Learning
- Professor Philippa Cordingley, Chief Executive, CUREE
- Chris Parkinson, CEO LiFE Multi Academy Trust
- Professor John Howson, TeachVac
- Dr Andy Chandler-Grevatt, Lead on SOS teacher retention project

To book your place visit stem.org.uk/trustconference23

