

Loudmouth update - SUMMER TERM and academic year 24/25

As you may know, Loudmouth is a Birmingham based theatre in education company, set up in 1994. We specialise in safeguarding work, supporting schools and colleges. We run over 1,000 sessions a year across the country with over 100,000 children and young people. Online brochure about Loudmouth's work

The programmes we have to offer this summer term and into next academic year are below. Ring or email us for information on dates, prices etc. If you want to book a last minute session for May, give us a shout and we will see what we can do about a discount!

Summer term favourite. My Mate Fancies You, our theatre in education programme for years 5-7 on puberty, growing up and transition to secondary school Click here for My Mate information

"We recently had a child ring us at Childline following a Loudmouth session. Without the session I believe the child wouldn't have had the knowledge or confidence to contact us and the abuse they were suffering would most likely be still happening now. Loudmouth's work really does change lives, so thank you!"

Kieran Lyons, Childline Service Head – West Midlands, NSPCC
