

SEND Conference 2024

Welcome and updates:

Jeannette Essex, Head of SEND & Specialist Services

Key Note speaker: Louise Bomber

‘Know Me to Teach Me: Antidote to exclusion’

Exclusion can sometimes be viewed as the only resort when resourcing is scarce, but what if there was another mindset possible that challenged our way of being and our way of doing in schools?

A performance from Children and Young People

A selection of informative workshops

An opportunity to network with colleagues

Friday 4th October 2024 9.00am to 3.45pm (registration and refreshments from 8.30 am)
The Village Hotel, Dolomite Ave, Coventry, CV4 9GZ.

The conference will include a selection of informative workshops delivered by specialists in their field. Please select your first, second and third choices, we will endeavour to accommodate your first two workshop choices.

Target audience: Headteachers, Inclusion Leads, SENCOs, Governors.

Delegate rate £100 including full hospitality package. Numbers are strictly limited and we will not be able to accommodate delegates arriving without a booking so please ensure you book via: <https://bookwhen.com/sendsscoventry> by Friday 20th September 2024.