An exhibition of Coventry schools' artwork, exploring the stages of children's art development.

From Scribbles to Masterpieces
An exhibition of Coventry schools' artwork, exploring the stages of children's art development.

At 1800, the world's earliest cave paintings were made. Over the centuries, children have used their hands and feet to create art. In the 19th century, the first children's art exhibitions were held. Today, children's art is a vibrant and diverse field, reflecting the creativity and imagination of young artists from all over the world.

This exhibition is a celebration of the talent and creativity of Coventry's young artists. It features a wide range of artwork, from simple drawings to complex masterpieces, showcasing the progression of children's art development over time.

Everyone will make their own Heirloom collage

We will supply each participating school with an mdf board and wallpaper paste.

You collate your schools artwork from across the year

You cut out the work and collage it down with paste making sure it is flat

After exhibiting, each school has a record of your year in art that you can display at the your school

Ideas for the Heirloom collage

One classes work

Key stage 1 or Key stage 2

Reception to Year 6

The best work will come from allowing students free range to draw and paint what they want – giving them free choice. This is when you see their imagination and “ideoplastic” drawing which is what they should be doing 50% of the time. (what we mostly do in schools is do “physioplasic” drawing which is direct representation.

Creative Opportunities for Schools

About Sonia Sabri Company

Sonia Sabri Company is the leading South Asian dance and music company in the UK today.

Our mission is to make exceptional South Asian dance and musical experiences accessible to all kinds of audiences and participants to the UK and beyond.

We aim to be a positive force for society today equipping individuals and communities with skills and experiences to help them flourish.

Our work widens horizons, encourages reflection, enhances mental and physical well-being, unlocks talents, builds confidence and cultivates the next generation of artists.

“Sonia was brilliant at engaging the children and pitching the lesson at their level. All the children had fun throughout the session”

What we offer

Artist-led activities tailored for Primary and Secondary Schools, with options for pupils with SEN

Dance

Pupils will be introduced to a dance and movement vocabulary from the discipline of Indian classical dance. Our workshops are a great way to explore key themes from the curriculum whilst also encouraging physical wellbeing, creativity and expression.

Music

Learn about taals, ragas and timecycles and discover beautiful South Asian instruments!

A brilliant opportunity to develop new music skills and widen understanding and appreciation of different musical styles and traditions.

Visual Arts

Learn about key art and design techniques found in South Asian art and use these to develop and share ideas, experiences, and imagination.

What we offer

We have a whole range of ways to bring the joy of South Asian arts and culture to your school

Workshops for Key Stages 1-3

Workshops for GCSE & A-Level

Creative Careers Assemblies

Relaxed Performances

After-School Clubs

Choirs & Ensembles

Music Tuition

Enrichment Days

"Thank you so much for organising the workshop for class 5. They had a blast this afternoon and were so captivated by it all"

"The best thing is that most of the students haven't been involved in music extra-curricular before, so it is involving new students"

We would love to do more...

We are looking for schools and organisations to host or partner with us on the following programmes

After-School Clubs – Dance & Music

At our weekly after-school clubs, pupils will learn the basics of South Asian Dance or Music, based on Indian classical and folk traditions – an upbeat, fun and accessible way to enjoy music and movement.

South Asian Music Ensembles

Give your talented instrumentalists the opportunity to play their South Asian instruments together and develop their performance skills

South Asian Singing Group / Nasheed Choir

Pupils will build on their singing skills and knowledge of the key building blocks of South Asian music, as well as learning to sing as a group
