

Dear ,

We are pleased to share an opportunity designed specifically for senior school leaders who want to strengthen their leadership impact and drive meaningful whole-school change: Leaders for Impact, a year-long leadership development programme now entering its ninth year.

For nearly a decade, Leaders for Impact has supported more than 130 headteachers and senior leaders across England to become confident, reflective changemakers who champion creative and cultural learning. Many describe it as transformative:

"In over 20 years of work in schools, it was the best training I ever had."

What is Leaders for Impact?

Leaders for Impact is a tailored professional development experience combining:

- 6 days of group workshops (online and onsite)
- 3 confidential 1:1 coaching sessions
- A supported personal learning enquiry within your school or community
- Access to a range of online cohort resources
- A supportive network of 20-25 likeminded senior leaders

Participants explore their leadership values, strengthen their reflective practices, and develop strategies that lead to sustainable change for creative and cultural learning across their schools.

Generation 9 begins September 2026 and runs until May 2027.
