

Become a Volunteer Community Forester

Join Raise: Cumbria Community Forest for practical days working outdoors and caring for woodlands. Seasonal activities include tree-planting, surveying, and maintaining woodland. Join as many or as few sessions as you can. Dates vary across weekdays, weekends and locations across Cumbria.

Our neuroaffirming volunteer programme offers a structured and welcoming space to build skills, spend time outdoors and contribute to long-term woodland creation.

- Simple sign up
- Group sizes between 4-10 people
- Key information about each session shared in advance

*"It's been such a positive experience.
Everyone is on the same level."*

"It's nice to come to a non-judgemental space, in nature ... I've always felt brighter after the sessions"
