

Quiz of the Week

1. Richard Rankin is the latest Scottish actor to play which Ian Rankin character on TV?
2. Who won this year's Scottish Cup?
3. Who is Scotland's' opponents in the opening game of the Euros?
4. Who composed the score for the film Blade Runner?
5. What is the capital of Finland?
6. The most expensive bottle of whisky ever sold at auction was sold for $2.7m in 2023, which distillery did it come from?
7. How many Tour de France titles did German Jan Ullrich win?
8. Which wrote the 87th Precinct novels?
9. Which press baron and fraudster died when he fell off his yacht in 1991?
10. What is the name given to the national intelligence agency of Israel?
11. Who created the spirograph toy in 1965?
12. Who is the manager of Liverpool Football Club?
13. Which country is musician and composer André Rieu from?
14. Who is the only sprinter to win Olympic 100 m and 200 m titles at three consecutive Olympics (2008, 2012, and 2016)?
15. How many acting Oscars has Frances McDormand won?
16. What is the name given to a puzzle device that combines the use of illustrated pictures with individual letters to depict words or phrases?
17. Björk was the lead singer with which band?
18. What year was the Concorde's first flight?
19. What sport is played at The Oval?
20. What is the name for a donkey crossed with a zebra?

Answers

- |  |   |                     |
|--|---|---------------------|
| 1. Inspector John Rebus  | 7. One (in 1997)                          | 13. The Netherlands |
| 2. Celtic  | 8. Ed McBain (a pseudonym of Evan Hunter) | 14. Usain Bolt      |
| 3. Germany   | 9. Robert Maxwell                         | 15. Three           |
| 4. Vangelis  | 10. Mossad                                | 16. Rebus           |
| 5. Helsinki  | 11. Denys Fisher                          | 17. The Sugarcubes  |
| 6. Macallan (it was a bottle of The Macallan Fine & Rare 1926) | 12. Arne Slot                             | 18. 1969            |
|  |   | 19. Cricket         |
|  |   | 20. A zeedonk       |