

Artistic expressions

We are offering prizes for artistic expressions of your coronavirus experience.

Please express your experience in art, music, photography, poetry, short story, or anything else you decide. You can choose to express your views and experiences in whatever format you like. With your submission, please also tell us what your art represents in a maximum of 500 words.

First Prize = £100 in high street vouchers

4 Runner Up Prizes = £50 in high street vouchers

Thank you for your contribution to this research. We will share findings from this research on our website, and will create a section for all the creative material submitted.

Artist's Brief:

When you are working on your artistic expression, please think about any or all of the questions listed here.

1. Before the pandemic, what would a normal day have looked like for you?
2. How has the pandemic affected your normal day to day life?
3. Has the pandemic changed the way you manage your health condition?
4. Has any element of accessing health, care and community services worsened during the pandemic?
5. Has any element of accessing health, care and community services improved during the pandemic?
6. Have you felt more isolated or lonely at any time during the pandemic?

Instructions for submission:

Written submissions, electronic copies or photographic images (including photos of artwork) can be submitted to info@healthwatchgloucestershire.co.uk. When doing so, please confirm that you are happy for your entry to be added to our website, either as a named submission or anonymously.

The deadline for submission is Friday 16 October 2020 and the prizes will be awarded on Friday 30th October 2020.