Recent Feedback: *"Thank you for opening this course up to unpaid carers. I believe I have benefited and have more knowledge to help steer my family members towards safety. it was refreshing to be included on something that is pitched at a professionals level. often, with carers, the level can be very low ... full of obvious/ -easy-to-read type examples. 'Have you thought of ... having a relaxing warm bath on a tough day' sort of thing. So patronising! This course was delivered in a professional and fast paced manner with a good deal of content. Supporting the Emotional Needs of People with Learning Disabilities - Team Booking

The booking is set up where a staff team books on together – ie, there are four slots per training session which means 4 staff groups can book into one training session. We allow up to 6 staff members per staff group and encourage staff teams to come together rather than by themselves because there will be time for group work in breakout rooms where a staff team will discuss together a particular person they support.
