Supporting the Emotional Needs of People with Learning Disabilities - Team Booking

The booking is set up where a staff team books on together – ie, there are four slots per training session which means 4 staff groups can book into one training session. We allow between 3 and 6 staff members per staff group and encourage staff teams to come together rather than by themselves because there will be time for group work in breakout rooms where a staff team will discuss together a particular person they support.
