

Chinese New Year 2023

Important road closure and event information

Sunday 22 January 2023

Annual Chinese New Year Event comprised of a Dragon Parade through the City Centre from Manchester Central Convention Complex to China Town and further celebrations in the car park and surrounding streets in China Town.

Road closures

Chinese New Year parade route, 11am – 3pm:

- Windmill Street
(Lower Mosley Street – Watson Street)
- Mount Street
(Windmill Street – Alberts Square)
- Peter Street (Watson to Oxford Street)
- Oxford Street
(Peter Street to Chepstow Street)
- Oxford Road
(Oxford Street to Whitworth Street)
- Portland Street
(Chepstow Street to Chorlton Street)
- Princess Street
(Portland Street to Cooper Street).

Timings subject to change.

Chinese New Year – China Town, 6am – 10pm:

- Faulkner Street
(Princess Street to New York Street)
- Reyner Street
(Princess Street to Charlotte Street)
- St James' Street
(Princess Street to Charlotte Street)
- Charlotte Street
(Portland Street to Mosley Street)
- George Street
(Dickenson Street to New York Street)
- Chain Street
(George Street to Faulkner Street)
- Back George Street
(Dickenson Street to Charlotte Street)
- Nicholas Street
(Portland Street to Mosley Street)
- Pine Street
(Chain Street to New York Street)

Parking suspensions will be in operation from 9pm on Saturday 21 January 2023.

Please visit manchester.gov.uk/roadclosures for more information.

Metrolink

Potential for delays but no suspension.

12 noon – 1pm: Congestion around St Peter's Square due to increased pedestrians.

12:30pm – 12:40pm: Parade crossing the tracks at St Peter's Square

Please do not hesitate to contact the Events Unit at cex-events@manchester.gov.uk if you require any further information from today until 4pm on Friday 20 January 2022