

Kent and Medway Safeguarding Adults Board

Open Session Advocacy and Adult Safeguarding

This open session is facilitated by the Kent and Medway Safeguarding Adults Board and is open to all. The session may be particularly beneficial to: people with lived experience of safeguarding; individuals with care and support needs; anyone engaging in caring for adults at risk; People working in the health and social care sector either statutory, voluntary, charity or private.

These sessions are free of charge and will focus on providing a space where attendees can engage with the Kent and Medway Safeguarding Adults Board to discuss topical issues and current planned activity being delivered across Kent and Medway, as part of their professional or personal development. Each session will provide the opportunity to meet some key people responsible for safeguarding in Kent and Medway and ask them questions about their service.
