

Spring Poetry Competition

Winning poems will be on display on our trains
and at stations this summer

During the Easter holidays, we want you to get creative and share a short poem about somewhere you love to visit by train, or think others should visit by train.

All you need to do is write a poem that is around 50 to 150 words long. It needs to be about a place you enjoy visiting on the train with Southern, but can also be about the place you live and want others to come and visit by train.

Once finished, please ask your parent or guardian to enter your poem onto the competition website.

10 lucky winners will then be selected by children's poet and author, Joseph Coelho (you might know some of his books like, 'Luna Loves Gardening' or 'Our Tower').

Winning poems will be displayed on trains and at stations this summer, with free travel up for grabs!*

You can enter from now until 10 May 2024. Good luck!
