Level 2 SEND Accredited Course for Childminders - 10 free places.

"Every Practitioner is a SEND Practitioner"

Outline

“Provision for children with special educational needs is a matter for everyone in the setting.” (SEN Code of Practice). Do you want to learn more about identifying and supporting children with additional needs? Then, this course is for you!

This is an accredited training course which aims to provide a qualification that will extend practitioner’s knowledge, understanding and skills for best practice when supporting children with SEND in the Early Years.

At the end of the training, practitioners will be awarded Level 2 Cache credits and certification in ‘Understanding the needs of babies and young children with Special Educational Needs and Disability’.

Description

Throughout this 6 session training course, practitioners will explore aspects of child development and developmental needs, personalised planning, SEN support plans and statutory guidance relating to SEND including the SEND code of practice, partnership working and effective communication.

You will be supported to complete short tasks and develop a portfolio of work. Time to complete these tasks is included in the sessions.

Outcome

By the end of this course you will:

- Have a sound understanding of child development and how children learn in the early years
- Understand statutory guidance in relation to the care and education of children with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities
- Understand the impact of transition
- Be able to plan to meet the individual stages of babies and young children

- Be able to work in partnership with a range of different people

Audience

Childminders.
