PINS brings health and education specialists and expert parent carers into mainstream primary settings to:

- help shape whole school SEND provision
- provide early interventions at a school level
- upskill school staff via online and face to face training courses
- support strengthening of partnerships between schools and parent carers

The forum's role is to promote co-production with families by:

- Hosting parent carer meetings in identified schools, open to all in the school community.
- Gathering and sharing parent carer feedback on school services.
- Signposting local support and information to help informed decisions.
- Working with schools to address feedback in a solution-focused way.
