

Pathways to success

Relevant for staff working in early years, Year 1 and SEND

A new DPSI course for autumn 2025

A morning of CPD at Shrewsbury Town Football Club with Diane Pye
9:00 to 12:00noon on Friday 10 October 2025
£100 per delegate

NEW for autumn 2025, this DPSI course provides inspirational ideas to develop and strengthen teaching, learning and executive function.

Informed by research and proven impact.

The morning will include:

- developing executive function
- looking ahead to the new Ofsted framework
- curriculum ideas, resources and successes
- effective routines and systems
- laying foundations for learning in different national curriculum subjects
- the impact of purposeful language and conversations
- securing key concepts and knowledge

Attendees will come away with refreshed thinking and plenty of ideas.

Click here to register and book

Feedback from summer 2025 early years training

'A very informative and effective session. I learned an enormous amount and am keen to put it into practice' Deputy headteacher, Shropshire

'Lovely to share ideas. Once again, very informative and lots of things added to my to do list. Thank you' Assistant headteacher, Dudley

Excellent and incredibly helpful. It was great to hear the evidence and research from studies about how children learn and progress. It has also been highly insightful to discuss with other professionals. Thank you so much' Early Years teacher, Herefordshire

Inspirational and impactful training

DPSI curriculum courses are exceptionally well informed and highly motivational. They have a proven impact on supporting schools to provide an exceptional quality of education, reduce workload, promote inclusion and inspire pupils and staff alike.

Click here for more information about Diane

CPD feedback

