

Child Sexual Abuse Response Pathway - Webinar and Training Dates

Date	Time	Topic	Who is this training for?
29/09/25	12:00 – 13:00	Harmful sexual behaviour in online contexts	This webinar is suitable for all professionals working with children and young people.
16/10/25	15:00-16:00	Online offending: supporting families following arrest of a parent	This webinar is primarily for social work practitioners, but it may also be useful for any professional whose role may involve contact with children or families, including those in social care, health (primary care, mental health, accident and emergency, midwifery, health visiting, sexual health), police, adoption services, fostering services, schools and any other relevant services in contact with children, young people, parent(s) or carer(s).
05/11/25	10:30-11:30	Responding effectively to sibling sexual abuse and behaviour	This webinar is for any professional whose role may involve contact with children or families, including those in social care, health (primary care, mental health, accident and emergency, midwifery, health visiting, sexual health), police, Youth Justice, adoption services, fostering services, schools and any other relevant services in contact with children, young people, parent(s) or carer(s).
20/11/25	10:30-12:00	Using supervision and team meetings to improve the response to child sexual abuse	This webinar is for those who supervise or manage other staff or have responsibility for the development of others. We ask that, where possible, before the webinar you have attended or watched the recording of the following 3 webinars by the Centre of expertise on child sexual abuse: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The child sexual abuse response pathway • Signs and indicators of child sexual abuse • Communicating with children about child sexual abuse The link to watch can be found here: Child Sexual Abuse