A quality English curriculum for all – focus on the writing framework (primary)

This training provides clarity about how an effective English curriculum ensures pupils make strong progress in reading, writing and spoken language. This training includes curriculum progression, ideas, examples, resources and routines to use in school.

Diane is involved in curriculum research and contributed to 'Telling the story – the English education subject report' Ofsted March 2024.

Come away with refreshed thinking, plenty of ideas, lots of helpful information about effective curriculum design, classroom practice and progress in reading, writing and spoken language. Informed by research, current curriculum thinking and proven impact.

This training is available for schools or groups of schools. Please contact Diane for bespoke sessions. diane@dpschoolimprovement.co.uk or through the website here.
