

Shaping the Future

Supporting Schools in a Changing Education Landscape

An after-school session for governors and school leaders navigating the increasing complexity of the education sector.

A practical, insight-led opportunity to step back, reflect and gain clarity on future direction.

Delivered in collaboration with Jeff Marshall (J&G Marshall Ltd.), a leading specialist in the education sector, offering practical guidance grounded in real sector experience.

Monday 22nd June
Arrival from 3.45pm
Session: 4.00 – 5.45pm

Millbrook Primary School
Telford
TF1 6UJ

Why attend?

Trustees, Governors, Headteachers & Senior Leaders are encouraged to attend to allow you to:

- Gain clarity in uncertain times
- Build confidence in governance and leadership decisions
- Access practical insight you can take back to your school
- Connect with others across the sector

BOOK NOW

Four Hills
Education Trust

Where Every Step is Shaped with CARE

Shaping the Future

Supporting Schools in a Changing Education Landscape

The Changing Landscape

- The evolving education landscape
- Key challenges facing us
- Insight into the latest Government White Paper
- What these changes mean for you
- Strengthening strategic thinking and decision-making
- Key considerations when exploring partnership, collaboration or structural change

Due diligence and strategic support

- Understanding effective due diligence Supporting governors and leaders to ask the right questions and make confident decisions
- Insight into evaluating risk, alignment and readiness

Inclusion strategy support

- Ensuring inclusive practice remains central to future school and trust development
- Supporting leaders and governors to align inclusion strategy with national expectations
- Exploring how partnership working can strengthen provision for all children, particularly those with additional needs

BOOK NOW

Four Hills
Education Trust

Where Every Step is Shaped with CARE