

Events at Lichfield Library

Stephen Booth (Crime Writer) evening talk on his new books set in Lichfield "Drowned Lives", Q & A and book sales.	Thursday 5th September 7pm	Tickets £6.50 Bar available. Booking essential
Open Doors at the History Access Point	Saturday 14th September 10-3pm	Free, Drop-in event
Book Signing of A-Z of Lichfield	Saturday 14th September 1-3pm	Free, Drop-in Event
A-Z of Lichfield Talk by Jonathan Oates following the publication of his new book with the same title. Talk, and book sales	Thursday 26th September 7pm	Tickets £5 including refreshments. Booking Essential
Staffordshire Hoard Trail Follow the family trail around the library and History Access Point.	Throughout October, during library opening times.	Free, Drop-in events
Local Authors Morning. Local authors are invited to promote and sell their books.	Wednesday 9th October 10-12	Free Drop-in event. Refreshments Provided.
Historical tour of St Mary's & the Market Square with Jono's tourism	Saturday 12 October 10.30-12	£5 per person. Booking Essential

Poppy Class visits/ with local schools for Y3 +.	Bookable dates for school groups in October/November 19 contact liz.leyshon@staffordshire.gov.uk	Free. Booking Essential.
---	---	--------------------------