

Disco Dragons craft morning

West Berkshire Museum

Tuesday 28 May, 9am-11.45am (three 45-minute sessions), booked in advance, FREE

We love dragons at West Berkshire Museum! We have a dragon on our weathervane and another in the permanent exhibition. It will come as no surprise that we're hosting a free booked family craft event on Tuesday 28 May to make and colour-in a disco dragon puppet. There are three 45-minute sessions to choose from (subject to availability): 9am-9.45am; 10am-10.45am; 11am-11.45am. (An adult must remain with the child/ren throughout the session). Places are limited and must be booked in advance. To book a free child place or places on any of these sessions, please go to: www.westberkshireheritage.org/whats-on

This event is run alongside the Disco Dragons Treasure Map which has been produced by West Berkshire Council Public Health and Wellbeing in partnership with Treasure Map Trails to encourage people to travel, explore and learn more about the historic town of Newbury. The ideas come from the children of Speenhamland School with local businesses and agencies also involved.

West Berkshire Museum is usually closed to the public on Tuesdays. If you book onto this event, you will only have access to the craft in the Long Room and the toilets. The rest of the Museum will be closed. Please do come back to see the rest on a day we are open to the public (Wed-Sun, 10am-4pm). It's free to visit!

If you book a child place or places and then realise you are unable to attend, please let us know as soon as possible so we can offer the place(s) to other families.
