

University of Brighton, Falmer Campus postgraduate open evening Tuesday 7 February 2017

Whether you are shortly graduating or already hold a degree and are looking for a professional qualification to enhance your career, the University of Brighton's informal open evenings are a great way to find out more about your course of interest.

Book a place to find out more about the following courses:

- Early Years Initial Teacher Training
- PGCE primary, secondary and Further Education and Training
- School Direct Training and School Direct Salaried
- Education MA

Meet course tutors and current trainee teachers and learn about funding for Early Years Initial Teacher Training and teacher training bursaries worth up to £30,000.

There's no better place to train to teach than Brighton.

Find out more and book your place.