APRIL 19TH, 2018 | 9:00 - 15:30

Messy Maths: An Outdoor Open Ended Approach

WITH KEYNOTE SPEAKER - JULIET ROBERTSON

Juliet Robertson, author of the acclaimed 'Messy Maths' and 'Dirty Teaching' books, is an education consultant who specialises in outdoor learning. Before becoming a consultant Juliet was a head teacher at three schools, making her more than qualified to help others improve their practice. She writes the popular education blog – 'I'm a teacher, get me OUTSIDE here!' which has 250k visitors annually

WORKSHOP LEADER - JULIE MOUNTAIN

Julie, former operations director of Learning Through Landscapes, is the Director of Play Learning Life, a social enterprise company that works alongside schools settings and families to promote the special nature of outdoor learning and play. Her holiday club - '50 Dangerous Things' encourages children to learn whilst embracing risk, challenge and physicality. She has written three books and is a regular contributor to Nursery World.

Itinerary Overview

This interactive day will be comprised of a keynote address from Juliet Robertson and the opportunity to attend 2 OUTDOOR Maths workshops. Come equipped for the day's weather (warm and waterproof if needed) so that you can participate in the experiences.
