

Learning for Work

FREE course to help people increase their skills for employment.

We are running a free 8-week course delivered in a small group with some individual support.

The Learning for Work course will be offered at different locations in West Sussex from June 2024.

You will attend eight 3-hour sessions led by an experienced tutor with support from Grace Eyre.

You will learn about health & safety, work standards, worker rights, customer service, teamwork, CVs and interviews.

You will also have some responsibilities of independent work outside of sessions.

Come every week for 8 weeks to earn a certificate.

This course is for people:

- living in West Sussex
- with a learning disability and/or autistic people
- aged 19+

Sign up today! Places are limited.
