

TIES: Advancing Detection Canine R&D Agenda

8 a.m. – 1 p.m. | December 10, 2019

- 8 a.m. Registration
- 9 a.m. Opening Remarks | Welcome
Jay Martin, Principal Director, Office of Mission & Capability Support, DHS S&T
- 9:20 a.m. S&T Overview | Doing Business with S&T
Megan Mahle, Director of Industry Partnerships, DHS S&T
- 9:45 a.m. Detection Canine Program Overview
Don Roberts, Detection Canine Program Manager, Office of Mission & Capability Support, DHS S&T
- 10:15 a.m. Break

Operational Perspectives

- 10:40 a.m. State and Local Law Enforcement Canine Outreach
Kevin Good, Battelle Memorial Institute
Cliff Deutsch, Command Canine
- 11:00 a.m. Transportation Security Administration Canine Program – Training and Development Challenges
- 11:20 a.m. Person-Borne Improvised Explosive Device Detection (PBIED) Canines
Mike House, Johns Hopkins Applied Physics Lab
- 11:40 a.m. Canine Breeding Consortium Pilot
Dr. Karen Meidenbauer, Johns Hopkins Applied Physics Lab
- Noon Industry Feedback on DHS's Business Environment
Megan Mahle, Director of Industry Partnerships, DHS S&T

Breakout Discussions – Presenter Q&A – Networking

- 12:15 – 1 p.m. Engage with representatives from the following organizations during the breakout discussions: State & Local Law Enforcement, TSA, PBIED, Canine Breeding Consortium Pilot, and DHS S&T Industry Partnerships.
- 1 p.m. Event Concludes