

Explore the Future of Higher Education Emergency Management at the 2024 NYS College and University Emergency Management Workshop

By David Hubeny

Are you ready to continue your growth as a higher education emergency manager? Look no further than the 2024 NYS College and University Emergency Management Workshop, hosted by Binghamton University. Scheduled for January 11-12, 2024, this in-person event promises to be a pivotal gathering for professionals in the field.

New York State's Premier Conference for Higher Education Emergency Management

Emergency management is a rapidly evolving field, with ever-increasing demands and pressures. In this dynamic environment, staying up-to-date with the latest practices and sharing experiences with peers is crucial. That's precisely what the NYS College and University Emergency Management Workshop aims to achieve.

This workshop is not just an event; it's an opportunity to be part of a community of practitioners dedicated to enhancing emergency management in the higher education sector. Whether you're a seasoned professional or just starting your career in emergency management, this workshop offers something for everyone.

Sharing Experiences, Fostering Growth

At the heart of this workshop is the spirit of collaboration and shared learning. We believe in the power of practitioners coming together to share their experiences, insights, and strategies. This not only enriches our collective knowledge but also helps elevate the professionalism of individuals responsible for emergency management in higher education settings.

Call for Presentations

We invite you to actively participate in this transformative event. The Call for Presentations is now open, and we want to hear from you! Do you have expertise in emergency management? Have you encountered unique challenges and found innovative solutions? Your colleagues in the field want to learn from your experiences.

Topics of Interest

- Preparedness: Strategies for proactive planning and readiness.
- Mitigation: Techniques to reduce the impact of potential emergencies.
- Response: Effective strategies for managing crises as they unfold.
- Recovery: Lessons learned and best practices for post-event recovery.
- 2024 NYS College and University Emergency Management Workshop

We strongly encourage proposals that include case studies and real-world experiences. Your proposal should consist of a short summary of your topic and the list of presenters.

How to Submit Your Proposal

Submitting your presentation proposal is quick and easy. Just visit our website at <https://binghamton.nbsstore.net/emergency-management-workshop>, where you can provide all the necessary details.

Join Us in Shaping the Future

Remember, the quality of the workshop relies on everyone's willingness not only to attend but also to present. We encourage you to share your story, your knowledge, and your experiences to help us collectively advance emergency management in higher education.

Join us at the 2024 NYS College and University Emergency Management Workshop and be a part of this exciting journey. Together, we can prepare for the challenges of tomorrow and ensure the safety and security of our higher education institutions. We look forward to seeing you there!

For any inquiries or more information, visit our website at <https://www.binghamton.edu/emergency/>, email us at oem@binghamton.edu, or call us at (607) 777-3545.