Applicant Information

Selection Process

Selection as a White House Intern is based on the following criteria:

- A commitment to public service
- Demonstrated leadership in the community
- A commitment to the mission of the Obama Administration

A completed application includes two essay questions, two letters of recommendation, and a resume.

Prerequisites

Applicants must be U.S. citizens, 18 years of age on or before the first day of the internship, and meet at least one of the following criteria:

- Currently enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate degree program at a college, community college, or university (two-to-four year institution)
- Graduated from an undergraduate or graduate degree program at a college, community college, or university (two-to-four year institution) no more than two years before the first day of the internship
- A veteran of the United States Armed Forces who possesses a high school diploma or its equivalent and has served on active duty, for any length of time, in the two years preceding the first day of the internship.
