

STEM & DISTANCE LEARNING

JUNE 23, 2020 2:00-3:30 PM ET
LIVE STREAMING HERE

Speakers:

U.S. Department of Education

Patti Curtis, Noyce/Lettvin STEM Education Fellow

Kevin Johnstun, Program Specialist, Office of Educational Technology

FEATURING:

Nithi Thomas

Partner
Learning Accelerator

Kevin Santer

Lead Instructor, CTE
Michigan Virtual

Dr. Christine Anne Royce

Professor, STEM Teacher Education
Shippensburg University

Learn from leading practitioners, faculty, and online coaches about opportunities and methods to improve online instruction, including hands-on STEM education. You may submit questions for the speakers in advance or during the broadcast to patti.curtis@ed.gov. Feel free to share this invitation.

Any content or opinions shared during this webinar are not that of the U.S. Department of Education nor an endorsement of any products, programs, or policies mentioned.

Join Us: June STEM Webinar

Where can you find help with distance learning?

What are some best practices for online instruction?

How can you do STEM virtually?

Are you ready for Summer and Fall instruction?

