

CYBERSECURITY EDUCATION 101

AUGUST 25, 2020 1:30-3:00 PM ET STREAMING LIVE HERE

Speakers:

- Albert Palacios, Education Program Specialist, Office of Career, Adult and Technical Education, U.S. Department of Education
- Dr. Davina Pruitt-Mentle, Lead for Academic Engagement, National Initiative for Cybersecurity Education, National Institute of Standards and Technology
- Dr. Chuck Gardner, Director of Curriculum, CYBER.ORG
- Dr. Lindsey Vincent, Associate Dean for Research, Outreach, and Innovation, Science and Technology Education Center, Louisiana Tech University
- Kara Four Bear, Principal, New Town Middle School, Presidential Cybersecurity Award Winner, 2020
- Donna Woods – CTE Cyber Academic Pathway Dual-Enrollment Instructor, Canyon Springs High School & Moreno Valley College, Presidential Cybersecurity Award Winner, 2020

Learn from leading experts, faculty, educators, and curricula developers about cybersecurity education. If you have questions for the speakers prior to or during the webinar, please email them to: Patti.Curtis@ed.gov.

Any content or opinions shared during this webinar are not that of the U.S. Department of Education nor an endorsement of any products, programs, or policies mentioned.

You're Invited: STEM Webinar

What is cybersecurity
education and why
do we need it?

What does it look like in the K-12
classroom?

Where can you find
free cybersecurity
education resources?

How can educators
integrate cybersecurity
content into their instruction?

