

INVENTION EDUCATION

OCTOBER 27, 2020 1:30-3:00 PM ET

REGISTER & SUBMIT QUESTIONS HERE

Speakers

- Joyce Ward, Director, Office of Education and Outreach, U.S. Patent & Trademark Office (USPTO)
- Dr. Radia Perlman, Dell Corporation, National Inventors Hall of Fame Inductee
- David Coronado, Program Officer, The Lemelson Foundation
- Dr. Stephanie Couch, Executive Director, Lemelson-MIT
- Dr. Kristin Moon, Program Administrator, Technology and Engineering, Portland, Public Schools, OR

The federal government's five-year STEM education strategic plan encourages the advancement of innovation and entrepreneur education. In collaboration with USPTO, this briefing aims to amplify the growth and importance of invention, innovation, and entrepreneur education in and out of school and across elementary, secondary, and post-secondary education. We are excited to feature these speakers and to share helpful resources with you.

A closed-captioned recording will be available 48 hours after the event. If you require other accommodations to participate in this event, i.e. sign-language interpreter, Braille, large print or CD-ROM, please email Patti.Curtis@ed.gov or call 202.453.6768 by October 20.

Any content or opinions shared during this webinar are not that of the U.S. Department of Education nor an endorsement of any persons, products, programs, or policies mentioned therein.

STEM Webinar

What is invention education and how does it fit in STEM education?

Why is invention education important?

How can educators incorporate into their content?

Where can you find resources?

