Re: Bar Dates in Subchapter V (Small Business) Cases

Dear Sir or Madam:

I write to apprise you of the entry of that certain General Order – Order Setting Proof of Claim Bar Dates in All Cases Under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 (the “General Order”), a copy of which is attached for your review. The General Order governs all case filed under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware. By its terms, the General Order automatically sets bar dates for creditors and for governmental units (60 days and 180 days from the date of the order for relief, respectively). Accordingly, to the extent that your firm is engaged to provide services in a Subchapter V case, it is essential that you understand that the bar dates are set upon the filing of the petition and should be included in the mailing of the Notice of Commencement.

Please do not hesitate to contact Una M. O’Boyle, Clerk of Court, should you have any questions or comments.

Very truly yours,

GENERAL ORDER – Order Setting Proof Of) Claim Bar Dates in All Cases Under) Subchapter V of Chapter 11)

AND NOW, this 14th day of September 2020, it is hereby

ORDERED, that this Standing Order governs all chapter 11 reorganization cases where the debtor elects to have subchapter V of Chapter 11 apply and no bar date has otherwise been specifically set by the Court; and it is further

ORDERED, that under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure (“FRBP”) 3003(c)(3), and subject to FRBP 3003(b), an unsecured creditor or an equity security holder whose claim or interest is not scheduled or is scheduled as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, has a proof of claim timely filed if it is filed not later than sixty (60) days after the date of the order for relief in each case, except that a proof of claim filed by a governmental unit is timely filed if it is filed not later than one-hundred eighty (180) days after the date of the order for relief.
