

WEDNESDAY
AUGUST 8, 2018

TELEHEALTH LEARNING WEBINAR SERIES

2 pm ET; 1 pm CT;
12 pm MT; 11 am PT;
8 am HT

Session #3:* Working Together to Eradicate Pediatric Obesity

REGISTER
HERE

Topics at a Glance

- Definition and prevalence of pediatric obesity
- Expert Committee treatment recommendations for pediatric obesity
- Getting involved: Examples focused on telehealth

Questions about the webinar?

Please contact Carlos
Mena at CMena@hrsa.gov

Featured Speakers

- Ann M. Davis, PhD, MPH, ABPP
Ralph L. Smith Professor of Pediatrics Director,
Center for Children's Healthy Lifestyles & Nutrition/
Department of Pediatrics, University of Kansas
Medical Center
President, Division 54, Society of Pediatric Psychology
- Eve-Lynn Nelson, PhD
Director, KU Center for Telemedicine & Telehealth,
Kansas University Medical Center
- Shawna Wright, PhD
Assistant Director, Behavioral Health Department,
KU Center for Telemedicine & Telehealth,
Kansas University Medical Center

For more resources and tools about telehealth,
visit:

https://www.hrsa.gov/rural-health/telehealth/index.html

This webinar is part of the HRSA's Telehealth Learning Webinar Series. The series' goal is to highlight successful projects/best practices as well as resources to promote and further the use of telehealth technologies for health care delivery, education, and health information services.

RECORDED SESSIONS:

Session # 1:
Consultation Services for Treating Pregnant Women with Opioid Use Disorder

Topics:

- SAMHSA's Clinical Guidance for Treating Pregnant and Parenting Women with Opioid Use Disorder and Their Infants
- Clinician Consultation Center's Substance Use Warmline

Session #2:
[Lessons Learned from School-Based Telehealth
Networks](#)