How to Access the Virtual B2B Matchmaking Platform

All participants who have registered can access the Virtual B2B Matchmaking Platform at: <https://virtual-stage.eventtia.com/en/wasteexpo2020/login#> using the e-mail address they registered with.

Step 1: After clicking on the above event weblink, the registrant will be prompted to the Login Page (below), enter the e-mail they registered with and click “Log in.”

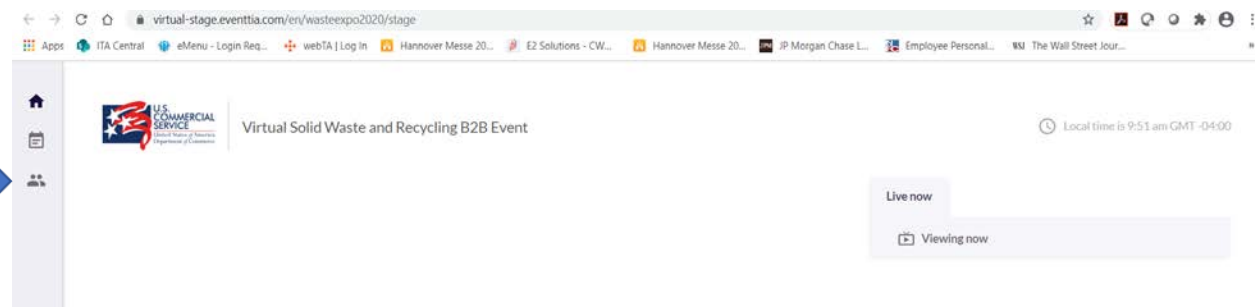

Step 2: Shortly thereafter (please allow 1-2 minutes), Monica McFarlane will send you a 6-Digit Security Code to gain access to the online platform (be sure to check your Spam Folder).

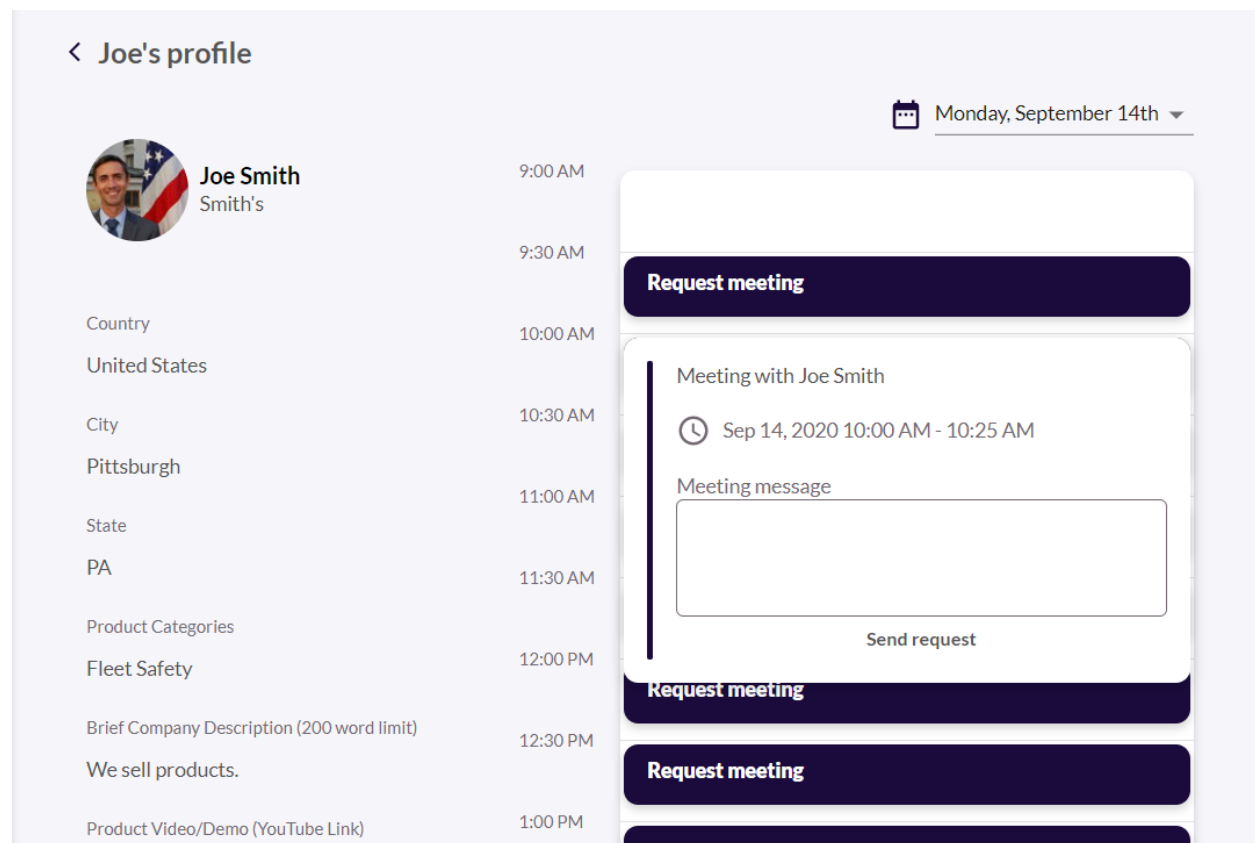

Step 3: After entering the code, click “Validate token” and you will have access to the platform where you can select the Attendees icon on the left to begin searching for two types of meetings – B2B with international buyers and B2G with our international colleagues. You can filter the results by country, product type, etc. to identify the best opportunities for your company.

Step 4: When viewing a profile, you will see the times that a potential buyer (B2B) or Commercial Specialist (B2G) is still available to meet according to your time zone. Once you find a suitable time, you can click on the “Request Meeting Button” and enter your reason to request the meeting:

Step 5: The recipient will receive an email notifying them of the request and offering the opportunity to accept or decline the meeting directly from the email. International buyers can send meetings request to you as well. Same guidance applies to accepting meetings.
