"Once you connect with a student's heart, you'll connect with their mind." -Jeremy Anderson

WHO IS JEREMY?

As a youngster, Jeremy experienced many academic and social challenges that led to failing classes and the abuse of alcohol and drugs. During his motivational speeches he shares what changed his world view, who embraced him and what altered his life choices. Incorporating many of the same "Next Level" strategies for change, he not only received a high school diploma but also obtained a Bachelor's and Master's degree. Today, Jeremy owns several very successful businesses, has authored 7 books, partnered with top curriculum experts to develop online and print SEL character building curriculum for students, teachers and parents, and has become a premiere education motivational speaker! Jeremy's passion and life's work is to help students and teachers become the best version of themselves.
