Summer Reading

We know it's been challenging to find new reading material with school and public libraries shut down. Please encourage your children to continue reading over the summer. All FCPS online resources can still be used.

FCPS

Students can access the following online resources over the summer:

- 1. eBooks and audio books (Through MackinVia. Click on this link for directions and help logging in.
- 2. MyOn (Online books)
- 3. Databases (Games, puzzles, quizzes, videos, articles and more!)
- 4. Wixie (A drawing and presentation tool that saves student work.)
- 5. Tumblebooks (Online books) Username: fairfax Password: fairfax

New eBooks will be added to the NSES Library Catalog on July 1.

FCPL

The Fairfax County Public Library is offering some online summer reading program. Most books are available as eBooks from the public library through Overdrive or Libby. For more information, go to the FCPL website. They are also offering curbside pickup of print books that have been put on hold.

Some videos from FCPL about their virtual summer reading program.

Summer Reading FCPL

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Hw1hzEZQnkM

in espanol

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yAKQR2QOn8k

NSES Library Books

All library books that were left in school have been returned. However, they have not been checked in yet so they may still appear on your account. Any books that you still have at home should be kept in a safe place and returned when school resumes.