Collaborator Find a recipe. Use the correct measuring cups to cook the meal with a family member.	Communicator Draw or talk about three things that you love to do with your family.	Creative and Critical Thinker Sidewalk Picasso - use outdoor chalk and let your inner artist take over.	Goal Directed and Resilient Individual Interview a relative and ask them to describe a hardship they faced and how they overcame it.	Ethical and Global Citizen Experiment with melting crayons on rocks. Give one of your rock creations to someone as a gift.
 Start a virtual book club or have a book discussion with a family member or friend.	 Skip count out loud while you jump rope, bounce a ball, or hop (by 2, 5, 10, 100, $\frac{1}{4}$, $\frac{1}{2}$, forward and backward!)	 Write a letter or draw a picture of the best day you've had this summer.	 Create your own chores list and check off the chores as you complete them.	 Chase fireflies. If you put them in a jar be sure to let them free while they are still living.
 Work with a friend or family member to build, cook or create something.	 Write a 6-word book or movie review. Share it with a family member or friend.	 Create a crayon rubbing using items from nature.	 Talk about or draw a picture of something that frustrates you and a way to overcome it.	 Think of a way to improve or care for your yard - and then do it.
 Play the attached Math Games with your family and/or friends.	 Make up a new game involving a sprinkler. Teach someone to play the game with you.	 Watch the clouds. Make up stories to match the cloud formations you see.	 Go on a listening walk. Make a list of all of the sounds you heard on your walk.	 Sing a song written in a world language.
 Act out a scene from a book with friends or family members.	 Create your own Hopscotch course and teach someone how to use it.	 Create a home-made instrument. Play a song with it for someone.	 Play a game with family or friends like Tag, Hide-and-Seek, Mother May I, or Simon Says. Keep playing even if you are not winning.	 Read a book with a character who lives in a different country or at a different time.
