INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS AND PARENTS RECEIVING TUTORING OR PRIVATE LESSONS OR OTHER EDUCATIONAL SERVICES IN FCPS FACILITIES

You have arranged for tutoring, private lessons, or other supplementary educational services with a private contractor in a Fairfax County Public Schools (FCPS) facility. FCPS appreciates the value of these extracurricular programs and discounts its rental fees to make them available outside normal school hours. Nevertheless, FCPS does not review, endorse, supervise, or guarantee these privately provided services. FCPS students do not need to take these programs in order to succeed in the regular FCPS curriculum.

Your instructor is not providing you educational services as an FCPS employee, even if he or she is an FCPS teacher during the regular school day. Instead, your instructor is an independent contractor who provides supplementary services directly to the public. This means that instructional, financial, safety, and all other issues relating to your lessons are entirely between you and the instructor. Any claims or concerns should be raised with your instructor rather than with FCPS.
