

Imagine the possibilities...when you read

Announcing a Celebration of Reading the week of February 28th -March 4th
at Lees Corner Elementary
with following activities:

Monday, February 28th

Reading builds community! Students will celebrate reading by wearing LCES school spirit wear or wearing school colors: blue and white.

Tuesday, March 1st:

Read to succeed! Students will celebrate that reading inspires and builds curiosity by dressing like a career/job they want to be when they grow up.

Wednesday, March 2nd:

Reading makes you BRIGHT! Students will celebrate reading is for everyone by wearing rainbow or BRIGHT colors!

Thursday, March 3rd:

Reading is relaxing! Students will celebrate reading by wearing pajamas. Get ready to cozy up with a good book and a stuffed animal!

Friday, March 4th:

No School! Student School Holiday: Students will celebrate reading with their families at home! Be sure to take a photo of your child reading and share it to the LCES Facebook group.

Stay tuned for more Reading Fun!
