Arena Stage Voices of Now Ensemble Rehearsals	Voices of Now is a year long, nationally recognized drama program designed by Arena Stage. Through creative writing, improvisation, movement and acting, Voices of Now gives young artists the opportunity to learn about theater and performance. Their ultimate goal is to devise and perform a piece of theater based on their own writing that poses difficult questions about social, cultural, and emotional issues. Students who participate in the workshop series are invited to audition for the ensemble, who will rehearse during the winter and spring and perform at Arena Stage in May, 2022. Students cast in the musical production are welcome to participate in the VON program as it will not conflict.	Wednesday & Friday	D106	5/18	Ms. Hard Arena Stage Teaching Artists	CLOSED ACTIVITY
