

Congratulations to the Chantilly H.S. Theatre Department as they received 6 CAPPIES nominations for their recent production of, “The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night Time.” The CAPPIES Theatre and journalism students from Northern Va, Maryland and Washington DC are trained as critics and attend each other’s shows.

Cappies students discuss and learn about theatre production. Throughout the year, newspapers publish the reviews with the students' bylines. At the end of the year, Cappies student critics decide who among their peer performers and technicians should be recognized for awards at the end of the season the Cappies Gala held at the Kennedy Center on Monday, June 12th.
