

CONSTITUTION DAY

SEPTEMBER 17, 1787

20
23

What is Constitution Day?

September 17 is designated as Constitution Day and Citizenship Day to commemorate the signing of the U.S. Constitution in Philadelphia on September 17, 1787. This day symbolizes the enduring strength and importance of this foundational document.

Why Celebrate Constitution Day?

The U.S. Constitution lays the foundation for our democracy, ensuring our rights and freedoms. It's a testament to the enduring values that unite us as a nation.

How can you celebrate?

Visit the Constitution at the National Archives.

Explore the Constitution online.

Learn the Preamble. Sing along here.

Sign the Constitution, virtually of course!

Serve your community: Find a service opportunity that reflect the principles of the Constitution, such as volunteering at a local charity or organizing a neighborhood cleanup. Students, don't forget to log your hours on x2VOL!

We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

