

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
November is Family Engagement in Education Month When schools and families work together to support learning and healthy development, everyone benefits!
			1 Join your school's PTA, PTO, or Booster	2 Take time to participate in an activity at your child's school.	3 Read a book, article, magazine, or newspaper with your child.	4 Listen to and discuss different types of music with your child.
5 Visit a local park or another attraction and talk about the experience.	6 Plan a day with no electronics. Consider books, games, or puzzles.	7 Teach your child a new skill for National Parents as Teachers Day.	8 Connect with your child's school about celebration plans for American Education Week.	9 Explore career interests and possibilities with your child.	10. As a family, learn more about recycling efforts and pledge to reduce, reuse, and recycle.	11 VETERAN'S DAY Talk to your child about why we honor those who courageously serve our country.
12 Walk, stretch, or meditate with your child to prepare for the week ahead.	13 Put a note into your child's backpack or lunch box as a token of encouragement. 	14 Talk with your child's teacher about his/her progress in school.	15 Host a pretend TV or radio talk show and take turns "interviewing" each other.	16 Commit to staying involved in your child's education throughout the year for National Parent Involvement Day.	17 Explore resources to assist your child with homework and in the classroom.	18 Pick a home improvement project and work together.
19 Browse the news and talk about current events with your child.	20 Read a book, article, magazine, or newspaper with your child.	21 Talk to your child about his/her favorite subject in school.	21 Invite your child to help you plan meals, write the grocery list, and shop.	23 THANKSGIVING DAY Share around the table what you are grateful for. 	24 Plan an exercise activity to complete as a family.	25 Start a family tradition to bond and keep the family connected.
26 Flip through old family photos and tell stories about your family's history.	27 Review and talk to your child about today's homework.	28 Talk to your child about his/her favorite subject in school.	29 Prepare a meal together as a family.	30 Praise your child for their efforts rather than their abilities.		