Million Word Challenge

The Million Word Challenge is a way to foster reading excitement and improve student reading skills. Studies show that the number of words a student reads aligns with their success in all academic areas!

- Students may read any book they choose. But, they must read the entire book.
- Students will turn in a form to the library to have the words tracked by Mrs.
 Vandersande.
 - o Mrs. Vandersande will keep a running log of words for each student.
- Word counts for each book will usually be based on the information at ARBookFind.com.
- Students will be celebrated for every 100,000 words they read!
 - Students who read I million words will participate in an end-of-the-year reward, yet to be determined.

Million Word Challenge Record	Name:

You may turn this record in ANY TIME: after one book, or after the paper is filled, or any time in between. Find what works best for you, but don't lose the paper \odot

Turn this paper in at the library book drop, and take a new one! Keep reading!

Mrs. Vandersande will fill out the word count (usually based on numbers listed at ARBookFind.com).

Date	Title	Word Count