

Commission for Women Seeks a Student Representative

We are looking for...

- Resident of the City of Fairfax
- A high school junior or senior enrolled for the fall 2024 school year
- Able to attend meetings on the 3rd Tuesday of each month (7pm-9pm)
- A dynamic youth who will offer a fresh perspective

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN CONTRIBUTING TO THE CITY WHILE GAINING VALUABLE COMMUNITY SERVICE EXPERIENCE?

The Commission for Women identifies and addresses the needs of women in the City of Fairfax. This includes advising City of Fairfax officials on legislative and policy matters relating to women, and advocating for programs to appropriately address their needs.

The Commission also promotes programs to increase the awareness of all city residents about the many issues affecting their lives and helps to identify resources to meet their needs.

The Student Representative for the Commission will aid in gaining a fresh perspective on gender issues in our community and will serve as a conduit of information to peer groups and student organizations. A non-voting member of the Commission, the student representative will serve a valuable role as a “voice at the table” toward exploring ways the Commission can serve our community across the lifespan.

Application Timeline:

Applications are due by Oct. 31, 2024. Student interviews will take place in early-mid November. Candidates will be notified by the end of November.

A Sampling of Past Commission Activities:

- Growing Your Woman-Owned Business
- Women’s History Month events
- Collection Drives
- Fairfax City Woman Author Event
- Title IX Panel Collaboration with GMU
- Fairfax Fall Festival
- Advocating for Voter Turnout
- Child Care Appreciation Day
- City Proclamations and Women Recognition

Apply Online: <https://shorturl.at/FwPd7>
Applications are due by Oct. 31, 2024

For more information, contact: City of Fairfax Human Services
(703) 385-7894; TTY 711 or email CFW@fairfaxva.gov