

Outing	The act of disclosing an LGBTQIA+ person's sexual orientation or gender identity without the person's consent.
Parents/guardians	"Parent/guardian" means any parent, guardian, legal custodian, or other person having control or charge of a child.
Plagiarize	To steal and pass off the ideas or words of another as one's own; use without crediting the source.
Possession	The actual or constructive possession of a specific object or substance. Such possession may be sole, joint, or collective.
Prescription Drug	Any medication that requires a doctor's prescription.
Principal	The principal, any assistant principal, or, in their absence, the designated teacher in charge.
Privacy	Keeping information about a person that can be used to identify the person because it is unique (e.g., full name, address, etc.) out of the public domain.
Profanity	The use of swear words.
Progressive Discipline	A structured approach to supporting student behavior that uses escalating interventions and sanctions to promote positive discipline experiences and outcomes.
Reassignment	The disciplinary decision that requires a student to attend another school or an alternative education program, or both, pursuant to Virginia Code 22.1-277 .
Recitation	The act or an instance of reading or repeating aloud.
Records Review	A meeting conducted by the region assistant superintendent at the request of the principal, to which the parent/guardian and student are invited to participate, for the purpose of reviewing the student's disciplinary record and interventions to date in order to further address the student's conduct issues.
Redaction	The act of selecting or adapting (as by obscuring or removing sensitive information) for publication or release.
Referral to the Division Superintendent	Referral to the Division Superintendent means a decision which is made by the principal in order for there to be consideration of student disciplinary action greater than a short-term suspension . Where the principal makes such a referral, the Division Superintendent will conduct a hearing to determine based on the facts whether additional disciplinary consequences (to include one or more of the following: a long-term suspension , a reassignment, or a recommendation to the School Board for expulsion) are appropriate in accordance with this SR&R. In conducting this hearing, the Division Superintendent also will determine whether the