

Family Quilt

Please help your child design this square to represent themselves and your family. When you and your child are finished, please send it back to school. We will then “stitch” it together to create a “Quilt” bulletin board representing our school community. You can use any type of media, crayons, markers, paint, etc. Remember this is a family project and you can also use your creativity!