To protect and enrich the quality of life for the people, neighborhoods and diverse communities of Fairfax County

Hello, from The Alden!

As part of our performance season, we include low-cost chamber concerts. While practice makes perfect, every musician benefits from hearing other performances. We can offer a group rate to make it easier for your students to attend any – or all – of these performances. Use the code AldenMusic for $5 off regular price and $0 fees. Feel free to share this code with your students and their families! Coming up:

February 22, 2026 at 2 p.m. Borisevich Duo, piano & violin
$10 with coupon

This wife-husband duo is an Alden audience favorite! These dynamic and brilliant performers combine the best of Russian and American musical traditions. Both feel a responsibility to teach and inspire the next generation of musicians. Dr. Margarita Loukachkina (piano) and Mr. Nikita Borisevich (violin) are active performing artists and dedicated educators.

March 29, 2026 at 2 p.m. Solomon Eichner, piano
$10 with coupon

Hailing from Baltimore, Eichner has won international competitions and debuted at Carnegie Hall in 2016, touring the world ever since. When not concertizing, Solomon maintains a faculty position for the North Carolina Chamber Music Institute.

April 26, 2026 at 2 p.m. Main Street Chamber Players
$10 with coupon

From Fairfax County, this group plays classical standards and modern pieces. Their repertoire includes works by female composers, composers of color and living composers.

May 31, 2026 at 2 p.m. Jenny Lin, piano: “Melody’s Mostly Musical Day”
$20 with coupon

This show is specifically designed for young audiences. Jenny Lin, in conjunction with Steinway & Sons, created the program, book and CD Melody’s Mostly Musical Day. Lin will bring the book and music to life while encouraging children to find playfulness in classical music. The book includes a CD of 26 pieces to listen to along with each page, and a copy of the book is included with each order of 3 or more tickets.
